

Bears Junior and Cubs Baseball

30 July 2014

Game reports – 26 July 2014.

Little League

We had a fantastic game against a strong Reds team resulting in a loss for us. At training we are concentrating on our batting skills so hopefully we should see some solid batting in our upcoming games. This week's player of the day was awarded to Brodie Henderson for a fantastic catch and a solid pitching performance. Congratulations to Brodie.

U14's & 16's

Although we had a loss on Saturday it was great to see lots of players stepping up. Malakai did a fantastic job for his first game at first base. Luke and Chloe also showed their stuff in the infield as did Katrina who also pitched for the first time this season. Courtney and Samantha again showed how well they work together as pitcher and catcher. But our Muzz Buzz award this week went to James who not only shone in the outfield but also pitched his first game. Super job James! Thanks to Bradley and Blake who each played a half game for the 16's who were short a few players this week.

Help needed!!!

The Bears Club is running the canteen during the games on Saturdays from the 26 July to 16 August. We would appreciate parent volunteers to help us with the canteen or cooking on the bbq. If you can spare just 30 minutes to help in the canteen this would be very helpful. Also if there are any parents/family who could donate baked goodies such as cookies, cakes etc. that we can sell in the canteen, this would also be very helpful. Any money raised goes directly back to the Club for purchasing more equipment for our kids. If you can help, please contact any one of our committee members.

Thanks to our sponsors Muzz Buzz and to the "mysterious" Muzz Buzz Cuppa for supporting our Club and appearing at our games on Saturday.
