Dear Member,

The 2016/17 Baseball season is in the mid-year break but is about to resume over the next couple of weekends.

A special meeting of members of the Melbourne Cricket Club Baseball Section Inc. will be held in the pavilion, on Thursday 19th Jan 2017 at 7:00pm. This meeting is open for all members to consider the changes to rules and the constitution of the Baseball Section.

The Women's competition starts this Saturday with the 1st nine at home against Springvale and the second nine away to Doncaster. Masters games begin Monday the 16th of Jan.

The Men's competition resumes next Sunday the 22nd of January with the First and Second nine at home against Waverley. Junior competition starts the following weekend.

With teams preparing for finals, the first nine is travelling well, leading both conferences but is yet to cement a finals place with 8 games to go. Nathan Aron has led the offence, hitting over .400 again and with 7 batters batting over .300 there is plenty of run support for Evan Brisentine, who has led the defence with a mountain of innings this season. Andy Mann has been building his workload and with plenty of arms in the bullpen we will challenge again for the flag this year.

The third nine sit a game and a half outside the four – but with a good run home and a couple of games against nearby opponents can determine their own fate. The fourth nine sit well in third spot and can confirm a finals place with wins in the next couple of weeks.

Get down and support the teams as the season draws to a close.
