

Tauranga I-SITE Visitor Centre is situated on 95 Willow Street, Tauranga
Phone: 07 578 8103

Mt Maunganui (left)

Mount Maunganui, Mauao, commonly known by locals as The Mount, is an extinct volcanic cone at the end of a peninsula and the town of Mt Maunganui, by the eastern entrance to the Tauranga Harbour.

McLaren Falls Park (right)

Located 15km outside Tauranga, McLaren Falls Park comprises of 190 hectares of parkland set alongside Lake McLaren. A great spot for fishing, Kayaking, bush walks, picnics and summer concerts.

Looking Glass Garden (left)

The Garden is a “Garden of Significance” recognised by the NZ Gardens Trust in 2008. It is nestled in the Papamoa Hills overlooking Te Puke into the majestic, multi-dimensional landscape garden with vibrant, seasonally-changing palettes of colour and texture that awaits your visit.

Kaiate Falls (right)

Kaiate Falls (also known as Te Rerekawau Falls) is a 30 minute drive from Tauranga. The walking tracks are well formed, although quite steep in some places. An ideal setting for explorers young and old.

Minden Lookout (left)

On a clear day you have a panorama of Tauranga Bay of Plenty Region. The lookout is 5 mins from State Highway 2 Te Puna turnoff and 21 kms from Mt Maunganui. Car Parking at lookout.

Athenree Homestead (right)

Early Settler Homestead and Gardens, open every Sunday 10am-3pm until May. It is lovely for Devonshire Teas, and interesting Tours of the Homestead. Just off the main State Highway 2 on your way to fabulous Waihi Beach—pop in.

Te Puna Quarry (left)

The old rock quarry is a locally loved garden park and outside art exhibition—it’s wildly character has a real community feel ran by local volunteers having made this park their community project. The quarry terraces are a must walk, huge vistas, green areas to relax & plenty of nature.

Western Bay Museum (right)

A neat place to go to and always something to look at. A team of locals at Katikati appear to change things around every 3 months so you need to go back, this museum is also supported by Te Papa in Wellington. A great place, neat size and powerful history.

Putetoki Reserve (left)

A hidden reserve away from the highway with off road parking and bench tables by the river. The forest is plush with tall ferns and wide walking tracks. A beautiful area when the sun is out.

Papamoa Hills (right)

2nd favourite look out in the Bay of Plenty—stunning views.