Across the desk of the President

Yep just thought I would keep the memory alive, as it was such a great birthday cake, thanks once again Kiri, coffee would have been really nice as well (Kane).....

Saturday club shoots, the following process applies. Ground Crew arrive early to assist with set up as well as IT personnel. Ground Crew easy, both of which are sent a reminder by the Secretary a few days earlier.

Members – what club members are required to do is register between 8.15-8.45, not just sign the registration book, but allocate themselves to a target, log on line – check you are shooting the correct round & the correct equipment (as some member shoot a variety of equipment), then proceed to put the target out on the field of play, before putting any equipment together. At 8.45 this then allows the field to be brought together so it is easy for the DOS to see the complete field, and there are no gaps, as the ground crew take an estimate of who may shoot the round on that particular day.

It has been noticeable over the last couple of weeks, that some members are asking others to register them as they are running late, insufficient targets are being put out. Targets are being put between the goal posts, with gaps for 2-3 target between distances, some members don't even know which round they wish to shoot – again this is disappointing when the Secretary sends out a reminder of WHATS ON to each club member.....so let's see if we can prepared. Also as members register on line at home, please also remember to allocate yourself to a target when you arrive.

The club member who is then on IT duty, does a quick check to see that everyone is registered.

Arrows – ALL members MUST have their initials on the shaft of their arrow, spot checks will be undertaken over the next couple of weeks.

Farewell, we say farewell to Lilia Hutchinson who has transferred her affiliation to Northern Archers, please take the time to say Hello to her if you see her around the shooting events.

Well done to Peter Whitfield who competed at the Open Nationals as a member of the NSW Recurve Team. Although not winning an individual medal, NSW walked away with the Recurve Teams Trophy, so Peter came away with a Gold Medal. Our other participant Maria Wright, won 3 Gold medals, and has written a summary which is elsewhere in the newsletter. Congratulations to you both.

JDRF Walk: Thanks once again to Warringah

Archers members who with Forest Coach Lines, helped me raise $2, 053.60 for Junior Diabetes - with Toms T' Cats securing $9888,80 our goal being $10K, so we surpassed this with reaching $11942.40. This is the 6th year I have been involved in the walk, and for the last 3 years, have had my own page, but supporting Tom Houston (whose not so small anymore) towering over me, but it is a great day out. It gives everyone the opportunity to get together, chat, enjoy each other's company, walk 5kms and then join in the festivities at Cathy Freeman Park at Homebush, perhaps next year a few of you could join me, but seriously once again THANK YOU.

Supertuner

Tuning your bow is a time-consuming exercise, and many archers will often put it into the 'too-hard basket', or consider it a task to be undertaken when there's nothing better to do! Well relax, manual bow-tuning is now a thing of the past. The Far-Fledged engineers have developed a machine that truly thrusts archery into the technological age. Archers raise your glasses to the Supertuner.

This is the machine that truly does it all! The illustration shows the Supertuner in diagnostic mode with a bow inserted.

The machine is set up approximately 30m from a target. After punching in your details regarding draw length etc. into the on-board computer, you remove pressure buttons, knocking points and stabilisers.

Your fletched and bare-shaft arrows are fed into separate hoppers and the machine takes over, with an hydraulic arm drawing and releasing the arrow. On the Supertuner model illustrated each shot is tracked by laser sensors, however, a similar model is now available which directly interfaces with our Intellibutt and Smart Point Systems. Both Supertuner models make progressive shot adjustments until tuning is complete. Then three beeps are sounded – just like your microwave oven, and the bow diagnosis is printed. It only remains for you to reinstall your bow accessories, carefully following the recommended pressures; measurements and tiller settings, and you're half way to miraculously perfect scores!

And for those archers who dream of pitting their skills against the world's elite – dream no more. When the machine's control bow and arrows are installed, the Supertuner is a more than formidable opponent! No club should be without a Supertuner. ### 9th November – Warringah Kidbow

Tournament. Congratulations to all our Youth members who competed at the event. Special mention to our Official – Kristian Chambers-McLean for officiating at the event, to our merry band of volunteers who came down early to help set up, and to our BBQ cooks who helped out on the day, and Adrianna for ensuring all our toilets / club house was spick & span. Although the numbers were down from previous years, our juniors still had a good time, with some of them competing in their very first event.

Gold: Carmelo Aslanidis (RU20M), Jack Chambers-Mclean (RCM), Michelle Catto (RIG), Massimo Llana (RIB), Maja Kecskes (RUG), Declan Agus (RUB), Henry Thomas (RU10B) & Pilard Shephard (RU10G)

Silver: Paul Vander Watt (RCM), Lucas Farrugia (RIB)

Bronze: Alex Ware (RU20M), Gabbie Smith (RCW), Cameron Murray (RCM), Tai Woodley (RIB).

Both Caremela & Jack were awarded an All Distance gold where all there arrows were in the Gold in a bracket of 5 ends.

As well as an All Range Gold, which was awarded due to their allrows being either a 9 or 10 for the complete round. Carmello, then went on to win the Matchplay Elimination round Recurve winning himself $100, Alyssa Mollema taking out the Compound Elimination Matchplay.

Archery Nationals 2019 by Maria Wright

The Archery Nationals were at Morwell again this year, with the NSW recurve team (with Peter Whitfield competing) securing a win, with the NSW compound beaten by a mere 20 points. I came back with 4 golds. Did I earn them? Depends on your point of view. I entered when others could have, I challenged myself, I did my best, and I lasted the distance. And had fun.

The unofficial practice day was very warm, and everyone lining up was in a good mood. However, I'd made adjustments to my bow before leaving for Morwell, and for various reasons hadn't trained enough to test it out, which resulted in it feeling all wrong. I struggled to get good shots, but had tomorrow's official practice to get it right, didn't I? The next (official) practice day was cooler, with rain predicted, and still no better shooting results until Johnathan Milne identified my peep problem, but I'd run out of time to get good sight settings. I even permanently lost one of my three spare arrows trying, so guessed I'd have to wing it for the field (she'll be right, mate???)

Day 1 - Never confident in field, my pairing with another lady compounder (Maureen) and a young male recurver (Alec) lifted me and made it a happy experience, but my "about there" settings didn't exactly give a great score, but not too disgraceful in the end on an interesting course. MEDAL #1

DAY 2 - Cooler with more breeze and showers for the 1440 round meant more effort needed. Maureen (again) and Shirley were great to shoot with, and the banter kept stress to a minimum. Losing a tip in the target reduced my spare arrows to just one, but other than that, no issues which couldn't be handled (IF ONLY I had proper settings -again). Still, not too unhappy. MEDAL #2. NSW archery members dinner at Morwell Club that evening confirmed everyone enjoyed the event.

DAY 3 - The morning's short course had me with Tony, a longbow archer, which made me appreciate the extraordinary skill and determination needed to even get an arrow on the target, let alone a good score without any accessories to help. Too much for me, so was quite relaxed and content with how I went, although not my very best score. MEDAL #3. Then the afternoon archers had their turn, in which son Clinton shot an amazing 888/900. Not bad for someone who doesn't shoot all that often.

DAY 4 - Clout day prediction was cold and windy. They were right!!! Holey dooley!! If you had hold of a kite, it could have ended in New Zealand. Everyone was challenged by the conditions, struggling till some ends when the judges extended the timing to allow shooting in some lulls between gusts, but there were few lulls. Both practice ends my arrows were the furthest behind the clout, no matter how the mirror was dialled, in both the first two scoring ends all arrows they landed very far back as misses. Todd Boyle tried to dial it further in for me, but still misses. 18 arrows (THREE ENDS) OF MISSES. Then we found that the mirror wasn't the issue, but the housing was loose, flopping down as bow raised. Finally, after tightening it, the next end got something on the scoreboard and the last 2 ends improved further after resetting the mirror. A bit late with only 3 scoring ends (Sigh). The next round went so much better, until the very last 2 arrows when fighting the wind so much meant that focussing on the clout was so difficult and when at last I settled I aimed at the white. Good grouping for those 2, but surprise!!! It was outside the WHITE FLAG. Hmm. Nevertheless, very enjoyable challenge, with lessons for next time.

MEDAL#4

The lesson?

1. Check equipment
2. Check equipment
3. Check equipment

No matter the talent, or how much you train, if your equipment isn't RIGHT you won't get results.

So :- challenge yourself, enter competitions, make friends, have fun. And ( did I mention?) - CHECK EQUIPMENT.
